If you are not involved in a Sunday Morning Bible Study Class, now would be a great time to join. The Winter Lifeway Quarterly was written by our Senior Pastor, Dr. Allen Tilley. The lessons will focus on Genesis 25-50 as the story of Abraham's descendants unfolds. Isaac, Jacob, and their children will be the focal point. God took brokenness and used imperfect people to accomplish His perfect plans. These lessons will encourage you and help you better understand your journey. Thank you Dr. Tilley, for allowing God to use you to write lessons that help us to grow in our daily walk.

CHRISTMAS PARADE

Anyone who would like to ride the FBC float must be at the gym building by 6:00. This year everyone will need to be dressed in white as much as possible. Pull out your white coats, shirts, and robes. Children in Kindergarten or younger will need to have a parent to ride with them on the float. Parents, pick up your children at the gym building as soon as the parade is over.

Since last year was a big success, the FBC Mission MAT will be giving out popcorn this year at the Christmas Parade. If you would like to help, we will meet TOMORROW in front of Patterson's Insurance on the square at 5:30 p.m.

BMMI (Baptist Medical Mission International) has donated to FBC some weekly pill containers. They are on the gold table in the front foyer. Please help yourself!

El Salvador Informational Meeting TODAY for the team that is going in MARCH. We are meeting in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the 10:30 a.m. service.

A note from the Personnel Mat:

We will have a single large Christmas drop box placed on a table at the churchwide fellowship dinner this Sunday. As our staff grows, we have decided to consolidate into one large box this year. Carefully mark each envelope with the staff name that particular card is for. Please drop them a note, card or gift and let them know how much you love and appreciate them.

Deadline to sign up for FEMINAR is tomorrow. For more information, see Lacy Jones at the gold table in the foyer.
