WELCOME NEW STAFF

Richard Reed will be serving as Congregational Care Pastor for our church family. Richard and his wife, Terri, are long-time members of our church, and he has worked in many areas of ministry for our church. He is currently our Chairman of Deacons. He will do an outstanding job of serving our church family during times of sickness and bereavement along with our other care ministries.

Nicole Stillwell will be working in the office as a part-time administrative assistant. Nicole and her husband, Jake, are active members of our church family. Nicole has a great skill set, especially in the area of technology. She designed our new website. She will be another friendly face in the office who will assist in serving our church family.

We are excited and thankful for these additions to our church staff. We look forward to the blessings they will be to our church family. Please make them feel welcome as they serve in these ministry areas.
-James McRight, Executive Pastor
